1. This Office Action is in response to applicant's IDS received on 24 May 2002 (all documents were considered).

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The computer test related art teaches that it is known to test computer algorithms by storing the code and analyzing it by comparing it against expected output. The voice and speech related art teaches that it is known to test speech related data by analyzing the coded speech for errors in transmission systems and also in speech/voice recognition control systems. While prior art such as Genell (6,324,411) teaches that it is well known to load software into memory for a voice related framework that is critical in real time (i.e. – cellular communications), it does not teach that it is obvious to verify the context using the combination of timer interrupt and writing an error code as claimed.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
